

GREAT STEAKS

In the world of prime steakhouses, being well-aged makes all the difference. The same can be said about the two grain-fed 'boys', Alan Lazarus (Lazzie) and Derryck Myers, who opened the doors of the first Butcher Boys in November 1999. Their years of exceptional restaurant experience has made them one of the most beloved, and well established teams on the Durban restaurant scene and Butcher Boys ongoing success is further proof of this.

Over the years, they have continually redefined the comfortable, quality dining experience, for everyone. So, what can you expect when you visit the Butcher Boys? The perfect cut of course (wet or dry-aged, grain-fed and sourced from the best local farmers). In addition, an extensive menu catering to all tastes, hearty portions, fine wine pairings (a carefully curated selection of South Africa's finest are stored at the optimum temperature in their cellar), and attentive service, all combine to form something truly unforgettable.

It's why 'the boys' always look forward to having you back again soon.
